

Official Ambassador - Start up form

Welcome to your Official Ambassador account on The Student Room. Complete the below preferences and our Client Services team will get you set up.

Your username (max 16 characters - including spaces). Your username will be displayed on the site when posting. Please include a reference to your institution so students are able to easily identify who you represent.

Your email address

A bit about you

(an introduction to your details will be displayed within your profile – max 1000 characters)

Official Ambassador - Start up form

Image/videos (please supply one of each of the following by attaching to your email)

1. Avatar – Max 100px x 100px.

This will display next to your username every time you post.

2. Profile Picture – Max 100 x 100px

This will display within your actual profile.

3. YouTube video

This will embed within your profile.

Alerts

Alerts are a great way of managing your workload. Everyday you'll be notified of mentions of your university/company so you can check out opportunities to get involved in conversations and answer questions.

Complete the table below for your alert preferences, if you'd like us to exclude specific forums like "Football" or "chat" where irrelevant mentions often appear let us know.

Alert type

Frequency
Daily or weekly

Terms

Brand: Make sure you're engaging with relevant conversations

Competitor: Track what your competitors are up to on the site

Course Specific: Keep an eye out for key conversations relating to courses you recruit for